

Singapore Art gallery guide

Ran Hwang: Becoming Again

Beauty can be found in the most ordinary. Choosing the humble button as a metaphor for the ordinariness of human existence, Korean artist Ran Hwang creates an extraordinary landscape of cherry blossoms and delicate webs for her breathtaking new installation. Accompanied by phoenixes and peonies – long regarded in Eastern culture as symbols of grace, strength and renewal – Becoming Again echoes the transient nature of existence that is at the core of Hwang's practice.

Artist Talk: Saturday, 8 November 2014, 2pm

Venue: Third Floor – Hermès, 541 Orchard Road, Liat Towers, Singapore

When: 7 Nov 2014 - 31 Jan 2015,

By: Third Floor - Hermès